| Hyperlink: | http:// www.karamoja.eu The project seminar is an integral part of the Karamoja campaign, which is supported by the European Commission (Europaid), coordinated by the French NGO ACTED together with the IKKK (Institut für Kulturtheorie, Kulturforschung und Künste) at Leuphana Universität Luneburg and the NGO People in Need (PIN) in the Czech Republic, and will take place at universities and schools across 4 European countries (Germany, France, the Netherlands and the Czech Republic). In total, 18 partner organizations are involved in the project in Europe and Uganda, and international organizations are already voicing their encouragements for this awareness raising campaign. |
| Inhalt: | The first part of the seminar, in the summer semester, provided the necessary background.... This second part of the project will focus on the implementation of the Karamoja campaign. |
| Literatur: | Please find the bibliography for the Seminar in the "Material" section on myStudy (SoSe 2008)... The project, dealing with the region Karamoja (Uganda) and the contemporary situation of semi-pastoralists in East Africa, will offer an interdisciplinary approach to the complexity of issues of development and sustainability, and will question past, current and future relationships between European and East African societies. It will raise issues of intercultural understanding in the age of globalization. |
| Ziel: | The project will involve the development of an awareness raising campaign by students and pupils across Europe, towards students, schools and the wider public. |
| Teilnahmevoraussetzung | See the infos on myStudy from the Summer Semester seminar of the same name (SoSe 2008). Participation is open in priority to participants in the summer semester Seminar. |
| : | A few "new participants" will be accepted on individual basis: They will be asked to read several texts in order to catch up on the others... |
| Studienleistung: | Campaign work |
| Prüfungsleistung: | In this project seminar, each student will be graded according to his/her contribution to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - The practical preparation, organization and implementation of one part of the awareness raising campaign (within a specific working group)... - The background research on unsustainable developments in Karamoja and possible remediations, in preparation for the writing of an advocacy paper (together with 3 other universities and ACTED)... As part of the research work, each student will have to perform orally and in written format. |

As part of the practical work, the achievements of each working group will be evaluated. The grading of the practical work will therefore be collective.

Further details to be discussed.
