RESEARCHING CARE

BIOLOGICAL, SOCIAL AND ECOLOGICAL REPRODUCTION IN TIMES OF CRISIS

The Researching Care workshop will bring together Leuphana scholars to discuss their ongoing research projects on questions of biological, social, and ecological reproduction. We will discuss the questions and motivations that guide our research on reproduction, and reflect on the different theoretical approaches and methods we employ. In addition to collegial feedback, our goal is to identify connections between our projects that may be followed up by collaborations.

The workshop is a cooperation between the DFG Research Training Group “Cultures of Critique”, the Institute of Sociology and Cultural Organisation (ISCO), the Gender and Diversity Research Network and the Center for Critical Studies (CCS).

Discussions will be held partly in English and partly in German, as indicated in the schedule.

Please register by Okt 23, 2023 by sending an email to julia.boecker@leuphana.de.
