

LEUPHANA UNIVERSITY OF LÜNEBURG

ACCESS TO THE CENTRAL CAMPUS

BY BUS & BY TRAIN

Lüneburg is situated on the main connecting railway route between Hanover and Hamburg. If you take an ICE from Hanover, it takes you about one hour to get to Lüneburg; from Hamburg an IC or ME takes you to Lüneburg within 30 minutes. Further information and schedules are available on » www.deutschebahn.com/en/start-en.

From the train station in Lüneburg, busses number 5011 (direction Rettmer/Häcklingen) and 5012 (direction Bockelsberg) take you to the Central Campus; they run every twenty minutes. Get off at the bus stop „Blücherstraße.“

In addition, there are taxis waiting in front of the train station. A ride to the Central Campus costs approx. 8–10 euros.

BY CAR

From the South: Take the federal motorway A7 Hannover-Hamburg until you reach the Soltau-Ost exit, from there take state highway 209 to Lüneburg. Then follow the road signs to the university campus.

From the North: Take the A39 Hamburg-Lüneburg motorway and then go onto the eastern by-pass until the Lüneburg-Häcklingen exit. Then follow the road signs to the university campus.

Parking: Please obey the parking regulations on campus. Please park only in official designated parking locations. Illegally parked cars will be towed.

BY PLANE

The nearest airports to Lüneburg are located in Hamburg (70 km), Hanover (120 km), and Bremen (150 km).

All three airports can be easily reached by public transport: In Hamburg, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hamburg airport and the main train station every 10 minutes; the ride takes 25 minutes. In Hanover, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hanover airport and the main train station every 30 minutes; the ride takes about 20 minutes. In Bremen, the tram line 6 leaves for the main train station every 10 minutes.

LEUPHANA CENTRAL CAMPUS

ACCESS TO CAMPUS ROTES FELD

BY BUS & TRAIN

Lüneburg is situated on the main connecting railway route between Hanover and Hamburg. If you take an ICE from Hanover, it takes you about one hour to get to Lüneburg; from Hamburg an IC or ME takes you to Lüneburg within 30 minutes. Further information and schedules are available on » www.deutschebahn.com/en/start-en.

When you get off the train at Lüneburg main train station, you will see, in the directly adjacent central bus station, up to three 5001 busses standing ready to take Leuphana Students to the Universitätsallee campus in 13 minutes or via another route to serve the Rote Feld campus. Get off at the bus stop „Kefersteinstraße.“

The bus time tables harmonise with the beginnings and ends of taught classes at Leuphana. In addition to the 5001 line, students can also take the 5011 bus (direction Rettmer/Häcklingen) and the 5012 bus (direction Bockelsberg) to the Universitätsallee and Rotes Feld campuses.

In addition, there are taxis waiting in front of the train station. A ride to Campus Universitätsallee costs approx. 8–10 euros.

BY CAR

From the South: Take the A7 Hannover-Hamburg motorway until the Soltau-Ost exit, from there take route 209 until Lüneburg. Take the city beltway (Willy-Brandt-Straße) towards the inner city and follow the signs to the Rotes Feld campus.

From the North: Take the A39 Hamburg-Lüneburg motorway and then further onto the eastern by-pass until the Kaltenmoor exit. Then follow the signs to the Rotes Feld campus

Parking: You can reach the visitors' parking lot from Willy-Brandt-Straße.

BY PLANE

The nearest airports to Lüneburg are located in Hamburg (70 km), Hanover (120 km), and Bremen (150 km).

All three airports can be easily reached by public transport: In Hamburg, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hamburg airport and the main train station every 10 minutes; the ride takes 25 minutes. In Hanover, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hanover airport and the main train station every 30 minutes; the ride takes about 20 minutes. In Bremen, the tram line 6 leaves for the main train station every 10 minutes.

LEUPHANA CAMPUS ROTES FELD

Building P: Rotes Feld Wilschenbrucher Weg 69, Pavillon
Building W: Rotes Feld Wilschenbrucher Weg 84

LH: Lecture hall
P: car park

ACCESS TO CAMPUS VOLGERSHALL

BY BUS & BY TRAIN

Lüneburg is situated on the main connecting railway route between Hanover and Hamburg. If you take an ICE from Hanover, it takes you about one hour to get to Lüneburg; from Hamburg an IC or ME takes you to Lüneburg within 30 minutes. Further information and schedules are available on » www.deutschebahn.com/en/start-en.

When you get off the train at Lüneburg main train station, you will see, in the directly adjacent central bus station. The bus time tables harmonise with the beginnings and ends of taught classes at Leuphana.

To access the Volgershall campus, take the Reppenstedt-bound 5013 bus from the train station. Get off at the bus stop „Volgershall“.

In addition, there are taxis waiting in front of the train station. A ride to Campus Volgershall costs approx. 10 euros.

BY CAR

From the South: Take the A7 Hannover-Hamburg motorway until the Soltau-Ost exit, Then take route 209 until Lüneburg. Take Soltauer Straße towards the inner city (Städtisches Klinikum), then further onto Bögelstraße, then Jägerstraße, then follow the signs to the Volgershall campus.

From the North: Take the A39 motorway Hamburg-Lüneburg and then onto the eastern by-pass until the Lüneburg Nord exit. At the police station bear right onto the city ring street (Hindenburgstraße). Follow the signs to the Volgershall campus.

Parking: Free visitors' parking places are available on the student and employee parking lot.

BY PLANE

The nearest airports to Lüneburg are located in Hamburg (70 km), Hanover (120 km), and Bremen (150 km).

All three airports can be easily reached by public transport: In Hamburg, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hamburg airport and the main train station every 10 minutes; the ride takes 25 minutes. In Hanover, urban trains (S-Bahn) run between Hanover airport and the main train station every 30 minutes; the ride takes about 20 minutes. In Bremen, the tram line 6 leaves for the main train station every 10 minutes.

LEUPHANA CAMPUS VOLGERSHALL

Building V: Volgershall New Building
Building VA: Volgershall Old Building

P: car park

