

LEUPHANA

UNIVERSITÄT LÜNEBURG

As a humanistic, sustainable and action-oriented university, Leuphana University of Lüneburg stands for innovation in education and science. Methodological diversity, interdisciplinary collaboration, transdisciplinary cooperation with practice and an overall dynamic development characterise its research profile in the fields of education, culture, political science, management and technology as well as sustainability. Its study model with the Leuphana College, the Leuphana Graduate School and the Leuphana Professional School has won many awards.

For the Institute of Management, Accounting & Finance (IMAF) at the Chair of Business Administration, esp. Accounting, Auditing & Corporate Governance (Prof. Dr. Patrick Velte), the university is looking for responsible, motivated and committed individuals to fill four positions as soon as possible.

Research* Assistants (EG 13 TV-L)

at 50% of the regular weekly working time of a full-time employee for a total of 4 years.

The positions will be filled within the framework of various cooperation agreements with medium-sized auditing and tax consultancy firms for the Hamburg location and will be funded by them. The projects provide for the person to be hired to work at Leuphana University for 6 months per year for his/her own further academic qualification (completion of the doctorate) and to be on leave for 6 months with loss of remuneration in order to work practically in the relevant company during this time. Remuneration is paid separately by the company during this time.

Your tasks:

- own further scientific qualification (doctorate on the basis of English-language journal publications).
- scientific services

Your profile:

- Completed university studies in economics (Master's degree or equivalent) with a focus on finance and/or accounting as well as related topics (e.g. tax, corporate governance).
- relevant practical experience
- above-average grades in all sub-scores
- Good knowledge of English
- ability to work scientifically
- organisational and communication skills as well as the ability to work in a team, flexibility and initiative

Our offer:

- an inspiring working environment as part of the university community of researchers, lecturers, students and staff in technology and administration,
- a workplace at one of the most beautiful university locations in Germany in a true campus university with an internationally acclaimed central building by Daniel Libeskind and the directly adjacent Wilschenbruch nature reserve,
- a high level of job security as part of the public service,

- an additional company pension scheme through the Versorgungsanstalt des Bundes und der Länder (VBL),
- flexible and family-friendly working hours within a flexitime framework from 6 am to 9 pm,
- flexible and family-friendly options for switching between presence work and mobile work,
- an extensive internal and external continuing education programme,
- a wide range of sporting activities sponsored by the university, which employees can take part in for one hour per week during working hours to promote their health,
- a university-sponsored catering service for lunch and dinner in the refectory,
- a job ticket for the Hamburg public transport system sponsored by the university.
