

APPLICATION PROCEDURE AND ADMISSION FOR THE DOUBLE DEGREE MASTERS PROGRAMME (M.Sc.) GLOBAL SUSTAINABILITY SCIENCE

Leuphana University of Lüneburg and Arizona State University welcome German and international applicants! The double degree Masters programme Global Sustainability Science (M.Sc.) offered by Leuphana Graduate School and the School of Sustainability at Arizona State University is subject to general admission requirements and special academic prerequisites differing from other Masters programmes at Leuphana University of Lüneburg and Arizona State University. Please check carefully if you fulfil the following entry requirements and selection criteria.

Applicants to the double degree Masters programme Global Sustainability Science (GSS) must submit their application to both Leuphana University of Lüneburg and Arizona State University. GSS applications will be reviewed by both universities.

The Leuphana application has to be completed online at: » www.leuphana.de/master-apply

The ASU application has to be completed online at: » webapp4.asu.edu/dgsadmissions/Index.jsp

APPLICATION PROCEDURE FOR LEUPHANA UNIVERSITY OF LÜNEBURG

Complete the online application for Global Sustainability Science (M.Sc.) between April 1 and June 1, 2018 at » www.leuphana.de/master-apply

If you apply to the GSS programme holding a German degree, you need to use the button “Applying online through Leuphana”. After you have finished entering your data, you will be given an application number, as well as an application letter for print out. You must submit the application letter with your application documents on or before June 1, 2018 (as determined by the post-mark date). The postal address is provided at the end of the online application.

If you apply with a non-German qualification, please use the button “Applying online through uni-assist”. All applicants who have obtained their first degree outside Germany have to use the online application form available on the uni-assist applicant portal (Arbeits- and Servicestelle für Internationale Studienbewerbungen). Please complete the form online and send all necessary documents which are required from Leuphana University and also the ones which uni-assist requires to uni-assist in Berlin. uni-assist will check your documents to see if you fulfil the formal application requirements and will inform Leuphana University of Lüneburg of the result.

You should finish your application in April to make sure that your documents will reach Leuphana University in time. Please note: uni-assist has to be paid in advance.

ENTRY REQUIREMENTS

FIRST UNIVERSITY DEGREE

The GSS Masters programme targets German and international students who either have a distinguished Bachelors degree or any equivalent (with a minimum of 7.5 points for students of law, holding a state examination degree). Non-German degrees will be examined with regard to their equivalency based on assessment proposals of the Zentralstelle für ausländisches Bildungswesen (» www.anabin.kmk.org).

Even if the bachelor degree has not been completed, an application to the GSS Masters programme is possible. Applicants have to prove that they successfully completed 81% of the required total course load (180 CP or 210 CP depending on the study programme). In case of admission, applicants have to submit their diploma by March 31 of the following year at the latest. Please complete this form as proof of your progress and ask your examination office to verify it.

DISCIPLINE-SPECIFIC REQUIREMENTS AND CREDIT POINTS

The GSS Masters programme is a consecutive Masters programme. Thus, applicants need at least 60 credit points (ECTS) from the first degree programme that are in disciplines related to the GSS Masters programme (compare list of consecutive disciplines).

OFFICIAL TRANSCRIPT OF RECORDS

Applicants must send transcripts from each university or college they have attended. Official transcripts are normally stamped and verified by the issuing institutions. Unofficial copies will not be accepted. Arizona State University usually only accepts transcripts being sent from the issuing institution, requested by the applicant (see footnote 1). If not issued in English, they need to be translated and approved by the issuing institution.

LANGUAGE SKILLS

Non-native speaker need to provide English language proficiency through:

- Internet-based TOEFL test with at least 92 points and no section below 22 points, spoken English section not below 23 points
- International English Language Testing System, Academic (IELTS Academic) 6.5 test with no section below 6.5

No certification should be older than 2 years.

International applicants for the GSS Masters programme do not have to provide German language skills, as the programme is taught in English.

SELECTION CRITERIA AND ADMISSION PROCEDURE

If the number of applicants, who fulfil the required entry requirements, exceed the number of open slots (10), a joint selection committee reviews the applications against the following criteria. In case two applicants receive the same score, the ranking will be chosen by lot.
