

QUALIFICATION FUND – OVERVIEW MEASURE-SPECIFIC CRITERIA

Funding measure	Measure-specific criteria
Active Conference Participation	Participation with own contribution (e.g. lecture or moderation)
Basic Conference Participation	Conference registration
Summer School	Minimum duration two days
Research Stay	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The stay at the destination is absolutely necessary for the applicant's own research project. – Minimum duration one week, maximum duration six months – Official invitation from the university/research centre/comparable institution where the stay is taking place
Publication Advice	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The external person has published at least five times in relevant, peer-reviewed, (inter)national journals with a high impact factor or at least twice in high-ranking publishers. – A rough version of the journal article or monograph is ready, but not yet edited and published. – A journal with a high impact factor or a high-ranking publisher is advised for publication. – The period of consultation is a maximum of six (6) months.
Conference Organisation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> – The applicant is primarily responsible for the organisation of the conference. – The conference theme reflects one of Leuphana's scientific initiatives. – There will be a call for papers within the (inter)national scientific community. – At least half of the speakers come from other universities or non-university research institutions. – Public relations work is carried out e.g. via a website, a press release or a flyer.