

LEUPHANA SUSTAINABLE ENTREPRENEURSHIP CERTIFICATE (L-SEC)

L-SEC is a cooperative project and organized by: Prof. Dr. Steffen Farny, Prof. Dr. Jacob Hörisch, Dr. Theres Konrad, Alexa Böckel (M.Sc.), Maren Fokuhl (M.A.), Simon Norris (M.Sc.), Frederic Penz (M.Sc. HSG), Svenja Rehwinkel (M.Sc.)

The Leuphana Sustainable Entrepreneurship Certificate (L-SEC) intends to fill the knowledge-to-action gap by developing student's entrepreneurial competencies, sustainability competencies and emotional competencies. In line with the Leuphana university mission, the certificate program strengthens students' individual capacity to act as change agents for societal transformation.

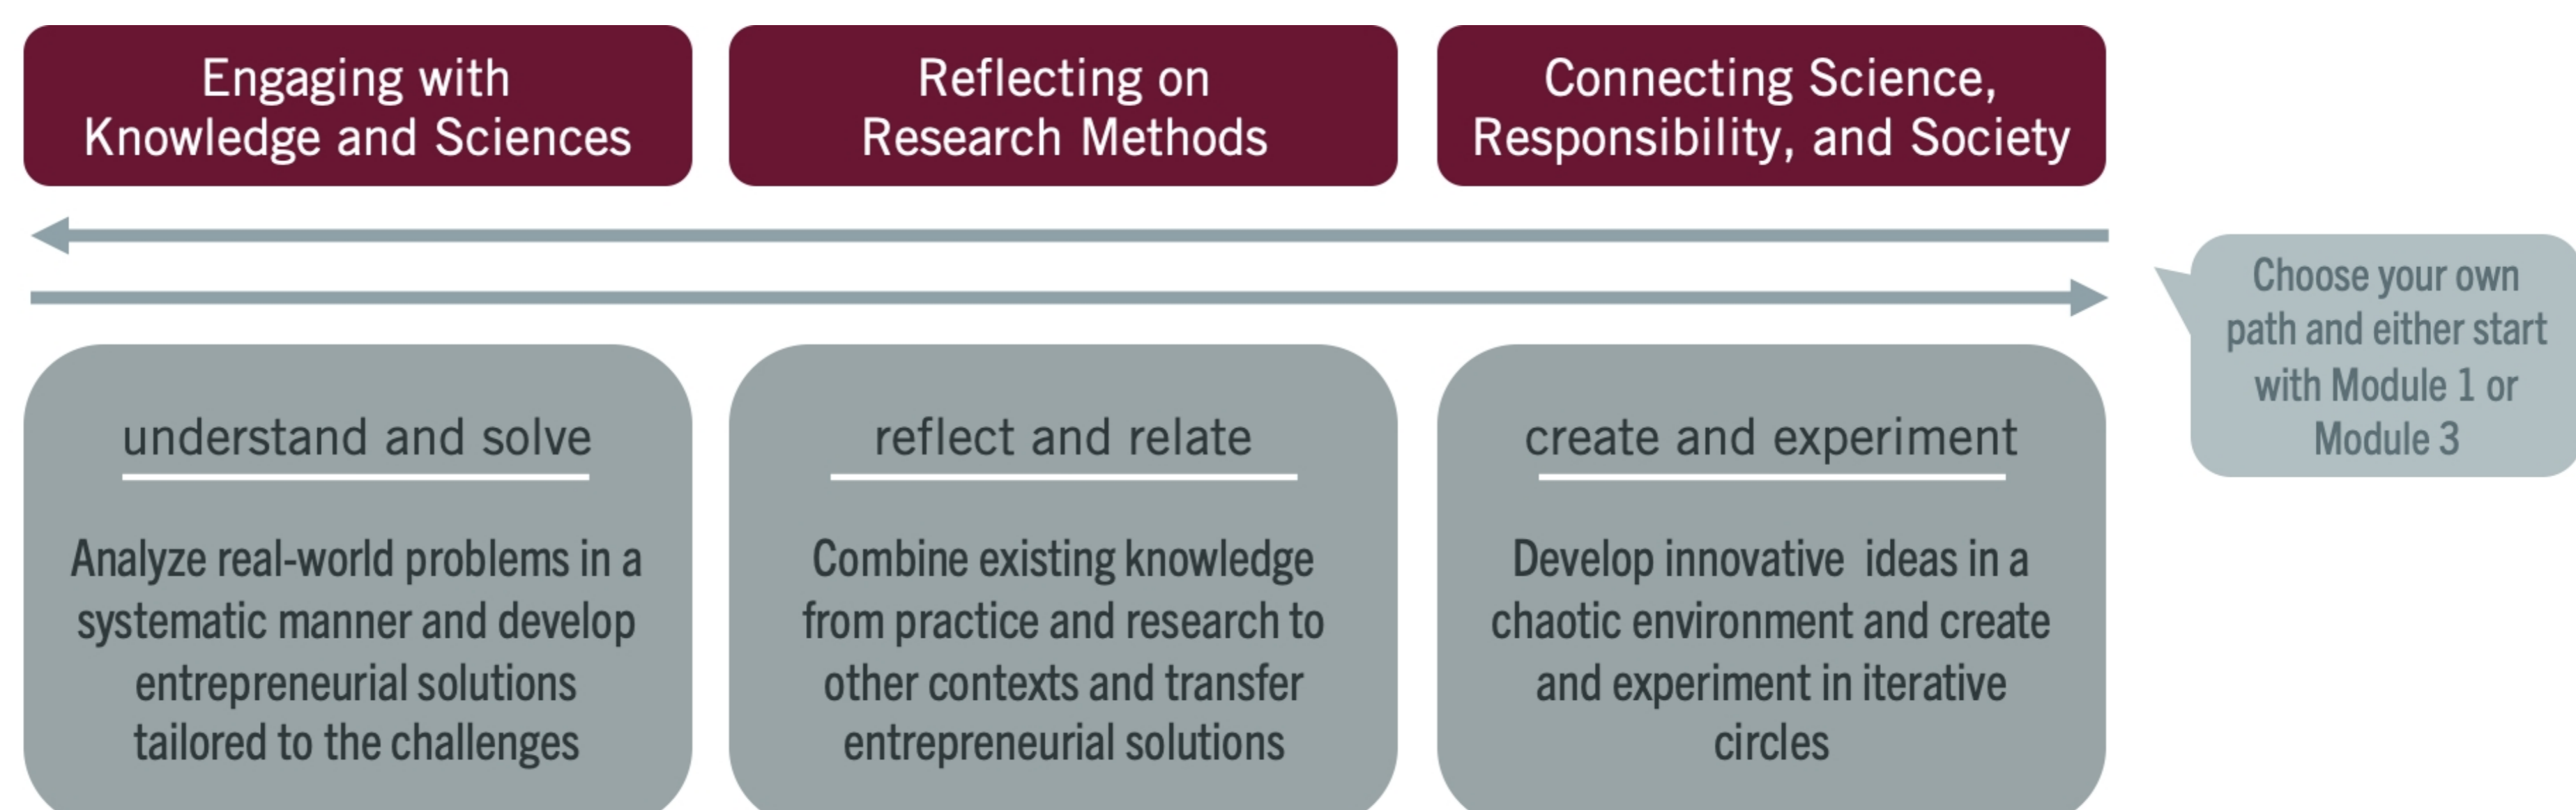

Who?

STUDY INTEGRATED OFFER FOR STUDENTS AT LEUPHANA GRADUATE SCHOOL (MASTER-LEVEL)

Master-level students at the Leuphana University have the opportunity to follow three consecutive courses (15 ECTS) as part of their Complementary Studies. The Sustainability Entrepreneurship Certificate is a voluntary, study-integrated offer for all Master students at Leuphana University.

How?

OVERVIEW OF THE CERTIFICATE STRUCTURE

Currently available courses:

Semester	Modul in the complementary study	Eligible course	ECTS
Winter term Understand & solve	Engaging with Knowledge & Sciences	Designing for Future Impact: End- User Integration, Innovation and Entrepreneurship (English) Developing entrepreneurial solutions in the context of the Lunatic e. V. (English)	5CP
Winter term Create & experiment	Connecting Science, Responsibility and Society	Experiment for Sustainable Business Models (English) Social Innovation Thinkaton (German)	5CP
Summer term Reflect & relate	Reflecting on Research Methods	Community Supported Economy: New entrepreneurial narratives in words & deeds (English) Measuring the impact of sustainable start-ups: A practical application of impact logistics &	5CP

