BECOME AN EXPERT IN ONE OF THE FASTEST GROWING LEGAL FIELDS.

The certificate „Regulation Law“ is developed for professionals who would like to deepen their knowledge on questions to which degree the state needs to intervene in the market. There are a number of nationally as well as internationally renowned practitioners and academics. The more economic approach also opens possibilities for arguments apart from market shares. After graduating from the certificate, you will be able to question particular economic reasoning and raise additional points that support your case. The certificate is taking place entirely online and is therefore tailor-made for professional students.
