

STEP Training - new partner institutions

This year, “Student Training for Entrepreneurial Promotion (STEP; <https://www.leuphana.de/en/university/staff-members/michael-gielnik/forschung-projekte/step.html>)“ will start at four new partner institutions. In Kenya, the training was launched at Mount Kenya University and Strathmore Business School. In South Africa, the training has started at University of Limpopo). In October, another training will be announced in Nigeria at Godfrey Okoye University.
